

Competition at Freight Rail Stations in the Congressional Districts of South Dakota

Average South Dakota Rail Station Captivity 88.1%

- Congressional District = One At Large
- A freight station is a facility where trains regularly stop to load or unload freight.
- Freight Stations are captive when they have access to only one Class I railroad